

Ireland-Northern Ireland Timeline

Chapter 12: 1100- The Great Famine

Dates in Irish History

1100's: start of British involvement in Ireland

William the Conqueror

The Island of Ireland 1014
Main Kingdoms

Dates in Irish History

1100's: start of British involvement in Ireland

1300's: "The Pale" (...beyond the pale)... indicator of inability of British to fully conquer much of the island

1541: Henry VIII proclaims himself King of Ireland, and forbids the practice of Catholicism in British lands

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND

Church of Ireland

A province of the Anglican Communion

Dates in Irish History

1100's: start of British involvement in Ireland

1300's: "The Pale" (...beyond the pale)... indicator of inability of British to fully conquer much of the island

1541: Henry VIII proclaims himself King of Ireland, and forbids the practice of Catholicism in British lands

1550-1600: Mass migration for the "plantation system" of settlement; mostly Scots, all Protestant, mostly into the northern area of the island

Dates in Irish History

1100's: start of British involvement in Ireland

1300's: "The Pale" (...beyond the pale)... indicator of inability of British to fully conquer much of the island

1541: Henry VIII proclaims himself King of Ireland, and forbids the practice of Catholicism in British lands

1609: Introduction of the "plantation system" of settlement; mostly Scots, all Protestant, mostly into the northern area of the island

1641: First Irish "diaspora" to west of island and to West Indies, and seizure of Catholic land

Dates in Irish History

1100's: start of British involvement in Ireland

1300's: "The Pale" (...beyond the pale)... indicator of inability of British to conquer much of the island

1541: Henry VIII proclaims himself King of Ireland, and forbids the practice of Catholicism in British lands

1609: Introduction of the "plantation system" of settlement; mostly Scots, all Protestant, mostly into the northern area of the island

1641: First Catholic "diaspora" from the island to west of island and to West Indies, and seizure of Catholic land

1688: Apprentice boys protest in Ulster...

Dates in Irish History

1690: James (Ireland) defeated by William (England)

1691: Treaty of Limerick ...Ireland "lost"...

Dates in Irish History

1690: James (Ireland) defeated by William (England)

1691: Treaty of Limerick ...Ireland “lost”...

1695... imposition of Penal Laws...

Catholics cannot bear arms, obtain a high school education, vote, become lawyers or hold office...

(later “Relief Acts” ineffectual)...

Dates in Irish History

1690: James (Ireland) defeated by William (England)

1691: Treaty of Limerick ...Ireland “lost”...

1695... imposition of Penal Laws... Catholics cannot bear arms, obtain a high school education, vote, become lawyers or hold office...

1791: Society of United Irishmen (Wolfe Tone), 1800 Act of Union (dissolution of Irish parliament)... “Monster Meetings”, Emancipation

Dates in Irish History

1838: “Poor Laws” passed... as bad or worse than Penal Laws

Dates in Irish History

1838: "Poor Laws" passed... as bad or worse than Penal Laws

1845: first severe year of Great Famine, 1847 and 1848 even worse (in part owing to the malnourished state many Irish were in)...

Population in 1841 estimated at ~8 million

Famine: 1845-1849

Population Change: ~1 mill died, ~1.5 mill left...

Late 1840s to 1920... Total Emigration...

US/CA: ~4,750,000

AU/NZ: ~450,000

