

THE CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT

Teaching American History 2006 Summer Institute • June 26-29, 2006

AGENDA

MONDAY, JUNE 26	8:30 a.m. - 9:00 a.m.	Check-in/Breakfast/Welcome/Contracts Dr. Maggie Lowe TAHG Project Director & Assistant Professor of History, BSC Dr. Renee Romano Assistant Professor of History & African American Studies, Wesleyan University
	9:00 a.m. - 10:15 a.m.	Introduction – “New Ways to Think About the Movement” Dr. Renee Romano Assistant Professor of History & African American Studies, Wesleyan University
	10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.	Gender & The Movement Dr. Dayo Gore Assistant Professor of Women’s Studies, University of Massachusetts Amherst
	1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.	Teaching the Civil Rights Movement through Music Part I - Setting the Stage: A Soundscape Dr. Emmett Price Assistant Professor of Music & African-American Studies, Northeastern University
	2:45 p.m. - 3:45 p.m.	Teaching the Civil Rights Movement through Music Part II - Dr. Emmett Price
TUESDAY, JUNE 27	10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.	Black Heritage Trail & Museum of Afro-American History Meet at corner of Beacon St. & Park St. across from State House in front of the Robert Gould Shaw and 54th Regiment Memorial
	2:00 p.m. – 3:15 p.m.	Teaching the Northern Civil Rights Movement Dr. Jeanne Theoharis Assistant Professor of Political Science, Brooklyn College, City University of New York Boston Public Library – Mezzanine Conference Room (Johnson Bldg.) 700 Boylston Street

	3:30 p.m. – 4:45 p.m.	The Civil Rights Movement in Boston Dr. Jeanne Theoharis Assistant Professor of Political Science, Brooklyn College, City University of New York
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28	9:00 a.m. – 10:15 a.m.	Reasoning and the Civil Rights Movement Dr. Horace Huntley Oral History Project Director, Birmingham Civil Rights Institute
	10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.	A Segregated Upbringing – Black Life in Birmingham, AL Dr. Horace Huntley Oral History Project Director, Birmingham Civil Rights Institute
	1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.	Brown vs. Board of Education: A Civil Rights Milestone and its Troubled Legacy Dr. James Patterson Professor Emeritus of History, Brown University
	2:45 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.	Historical Memory - Which Movement Do We Teach? Dr. Renee Romano Assistant Professor of History & African American Studies, Wesleyan University
THURSDAY, JUNE 29	9:00 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.	Sharing Ideas – Teaching the Civil Rights Movement Jonathon Roda Middleboro High School
	10:45 a.m. - 11:45 a.m.	Keynote Speaker “Civil Rights: On and Off the Field” Robert A. Watkins Jr. Former VP for Seagram & Sons and one of the first African-American players for the NFL’s Chicago Bears
	12:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.	Teaching American History Grant I – Culmination Event Lunch & District Presentations Welcome and Grant Overview Dr. Maggie Lowe TAHG Project Director & Assistant Professor of History, BSC Gary Lincoln Project Evaluator Paul Branagan Lesson Plan Evaluator Brockton School District John Murray TAHG Liaison Carver School District Ron King TAHG Liaison Middleboro School District Jonathon Roda TAHG Liaison

Plymouth School District
Sally Stevens
TAHG Liaison