The Online Generation Is Here.

Some unusual facts about online safety.

From The Massachusetts Aggression Reduction Center at Bridgewater State College.
You probably know more about online life than your parents. But here are a few things you may not know.

- Bullying is abuse. Don’t stand for it.
- Giving out your password and getting blamed is a mistake.
- Your profile is not really private.
- You are not alone. Lots are cyberbullied.
- Everyone does it, but it's still illegal! =/
